- (1) Permit the completion of elections not less than 30 days prior to expiration of the respective incumbents' terms; provide to all Voting Members timely notice of both nominations and elections, and reasonable opportunity to nominate and vote;
- (2) Ensure that at least one qualified candidate is nominated for each Directorship to be filled and that each nominee is willing to accept the Directorship if elected;
- (3) Assure that candidates shall remain in, and run for, the position for which they are nominated unless the Board of Directors determines there is a need to reassign the candidate to another Director position (e.g., the other position has no candidate) and the candidate concurs with the proposed reassignment; and
- (4) Ensure that elections are conducted in a fair and equitable manner.

b. Voting for Directors shall be conducted electronically. Written ballot by postal mail will also be accepted from Voting Members without access to electronic means for voting. Voting by proxy shall be prohibited.

- c. A plurality of all votes cast for a particular directorship shall be required for election to that position.

Section 4. Responsibility and Authority of the Board of Directors.

- a. Authority. The Board of Directors shall: have full control and supervision of the affairs of the RRF; have full authority to make rules and regulations for the administration of the RRF, consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws; and, through the President, be responsible to all RRF members for the effective and efficient operation of the RRF. Within the discretion of the Board of Directors, it may delegate to the President or other Director such authority as it deems necessary.
- b. Contracts. In addition to the general powers conferred, the Board of Directors shall control and manage all funds and property of the RRF, including specifically the appropriation and disbursement of its funds. It shall control and authorize the making of all contracts and purchases of the RRF. However, unless specifically authorized by the voting Regular Membership, it shall have no power or authority to contract for or otherwise obligate the RRF for any debts or obligation greater than the amount of money which shall, at the time of contracting such debt or obligation, be in the treasury, and unappropriated, and in excess of the amount needed for the discharge of debts and liabilities contracted prior thereto. By authority of the Board of Directors, contracts in the name of the RRF shall be signed by the President or the President's designee.
- c. Financial Planning and Review. On or before November 30 annually, the Board of Directors shall approve a financial program prepared by the Treasurer for the forthcoming calendar year, showing anticipated receipts and expenditures of the RRF funds. The Board of Directors shall approve and make available to the Regular Membership a professional financial review of the books of the RRF as per ARTICLE IV, Section 3f(8) below.

Section 5. Directors' Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet, either in person or by use of electronic media, upon call of the President at any time, but not less than twice each calendar year.

- a. A quorum of at least 7 Directors shall be required to vote on matters at a Directors' Meeting. Participation at the annual meeting via teleconferencing is permitted, where the affirmative vote of a majority of Directors present or teleconferencing shall be required for action on any matter. Directors may not vote by proxy.
- b. The President, or in the President's absence, the Vice President, shall preside over the Directors' Meeting. If neither the President nor Vice President are present, the Treasurer shall preside over the Directors Meeting. If none of these three elected officers is in attendance at the Directors' Meeting, the Directors' Meeting shall be presided by a Director designated by the President.

- (2) Items presented on the e-agendas will undergo a discussion period following dissemination of the e-agenda and associated materials by the Directors, after which voting will take place.
- (3) If a Director is unable to vote during the voting period associated with an e- agenda, they must inform the President and Secretary at their earliest convenience to request early or late voting allowance; failure to inform the President and Secretary before the start of the regular voting period will result in the Director not being allowed to vote.
- (4) Early and late electronic voting will be allowed with prior approval of the President. Early votes should be submitted only to the President and Secretary and shall remain confidential until the regular voting period is over.
- (5) Lengths of time for discussion and voting periods will be set by vote of the Board of Directors.

b. Discussion, Forum, and Vote (DFV)

- (1) Discussion, Forum, and Vote (DFV) is a means to address time-sensitive matters requiring Board of Directors' attention outside of the regularly scheduled e-agendas or annual meeting.
- (2) There will be no allowance for early or late voting on DFVs.

c. Lengths of time for discussion and voting will be set by vote of the Board of Directors' Annual Meeting

- (1) Prior to the annual Board of Directors' meeting there will be a discussion period via e-mail for those items to be put before the Board at the scheduled annual meeting.

- (2) Timing for discussion and voting periods will be set by vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Termination and Removal of Directors and Officers.

- a. The Board of Directors shall vote on the removal of any board member or officer from his/her position for malfeasance, unresolvable conflict of interest, or lapse of membership.
- b. Resignations from the Board of Directors shall be submitted to the President. Any termination of Membership shall operate as a resignation.
- c. In the event vacancies occur in any manner other than by expiration of term of office, the remaining members of the Board, by majority vote, shall temporarily fill the vacancy by appointment from the Voting Membership following the requirements in Article III, Section 2 of these Bylaws. In the instance of the appointment of a Regional Director, the appointee must be a resident of the region concerned. The temporary appointment shall continue only until the next regularly scheduled election, at which time the Directorship shall be filled by the normal election process, either to the unexpired portion of the term or a new term, as appropriate.

Section 8. Submission to the Regular Membership.

- a. Within the discretion of the Board of Directors, any matter may be submitted to the Voting Membership for vote.
- b. Upon the written petition of at least 5 percent of the Voting Membership, any such matter shall be submitted to the Voting Membership for vote.
- c. Within 30 days following receipt of such petition, the Board of Directors shall submit the matter to the Voting Membership for vote. The manner of submission and voting on all matters shall be in accord with Article V, Section 2, of these Bylaws; provided that, in the instance of proposed amendments to these Bylaws and proposed dissolution, a two-thirds affirmative vote shall be required in accord with Articles VII and IX.
- d. The Board of Directors shall be bound by the majority vote of the Voting Membership upon the issues submitted except as noted in ARTICLE VII, Section 1.
